

METRO BUILDING INSPECTORS ASSOCIATION

July 10, 2008 Program: IAS Building Department Accreditation

Greg West of ICC will be the presenter. We have also invited Scott Cope, Director of Building & Ordinance Compliance, City of Rochester Hills to speak on their experience of going through the accreditation process as the first City in Michigan to receive this accreditation.

Program Overview: Professional organizations from police and fire departments to hospitals and educational institutions have chosen to use accreditation to raise the standard of professionalism, bring improvements to their organizations, and provide evidence of their competence. Now building departments have the same opportunity through the IAS Building Department Accreditation program. This presentation will provide important information about the IAS Building Department Accreditation program, including:

- What is accreditation?
- Who is IAS?
- What does the accreditation process involve?
- How long does it take?
- How much does it cost?
- What are the benefits?
- How do you get started?
- More....
