

Gary Owens

A native of Greater Cincinnati, Gary lives in Northern Kentucky with his wife and two children. Gary's current role as Regional Sales Manager for Cornell Iron Works has him managing 30 plus distributors in a 7 state region. With a total of 25 years experience in the Door, Gate and Access Controls Industry his knowledge and technical ability are perfect traits for recommending the correct products for a particular application. Gary is a CSI member and active with IDA, IDEA, ARDI and other related organization. He sits on the DASMA advisory committee for the UL-325 standards. His prior experience; working as a draftsman and sales support for a Rolling Steel Door Manufacture, overseeing operations at a Installing Distributor and more have made him a great consultant for the door organization.